

The False Gospel of Critical Race Theory

Dr. Andy Woods
Senior Pastor – Sugar Land Bible Church
President – Chafer Theological Seminary

Colossians 2:8

“See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception, according to the tradition of men, according to the elementary principles of the world, rather than according to Christ.”

Acts 20:29-31

“For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves. Therefore be on the alert, remembering that night and day for a period of three years I did not cease to admonish each one with tears.” (Italics added).

6. Institutional Racism

- We acknowledge racism has been an element within American history from the beginning. From the legal enslavement of black Africans to the “Jim Crow” laws and state-sponsored segregation, racism has embedded itself in many of our institutions. Sadly, the church has not been guiltless in this matter. American church history has been tragically marred by many examples of complicity with the racist policies of the state being followed by the church. Segregated congregations are a historic example of the evil presence of racism within the church.

UCLA School of Public Affairs

Definition of CRT

UCLA School of Public Affairs: “CRT recognizes that racism is engrained in the fabric and system of the American society. The individual racist need not exist to note that institutional racism is pervasive in the dominant culture. This is the analytical lens that CRT uses in examining existing power structures. CRT identifies that these power structures are based on white privilege and white supremacy, which perpetuates the marginalization of people of color.”

Kareem Abdul-Jabbar

Definition of CRT

“Well, it’s just like if – have you ever been in a room and there’s something – you feel a little something itching in your nose? There’s a – something in the air, a dust or pollen that you can’t see....Racism is like that. It’s ingrained in our society and it’s taken for granted. And all of the things that are taken for granted can accumulate and be deadly on certain segments of the population. And it comes down on the heads of poor people and people of color.”

REVOLUTIONARY ABOLITIONIST MOVEMENT

10 POINTS of ACTION

- 1 Liberation will be won by any means necessary.
- 2 We will destroy the state, police, military, corporations and all those who run the American plantation.
- 3 We will live with dignity in a world without prisons.
- 4 Systems of punishment will be abolished. There will be no law to enforce, no money to protect.
- 5 Revolutionary justice will be determined by those who are oppressed.
- 6 There will be no government. No person or group will have power over another.
- 7 Communities will make decisions about how they live, and will make sure that everyone has what they need to live a dignified life.
- 8 Land is not property. It is alive, communal and must be protected.
- 9 Alongside international comrades, we will destroy all borders for the free movement of people everywhere.
- 10 Militant networks will defend our revolutionary communities. Liberation begins where America dies.

Lest we forget at least an over-the-shoulder acknowledgment to the very first radical: from all our legends, mythology, and history (and who is to know where mythology leaves off and history begins—or which is which), the first radical known to man who rebelled against the establishment and did it so effectively that he at least won his own kingdom—Lucifer.

Galatians 1:8-9

“But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to what we have preached to you, he is to be accursed! As we have said before, so I say again now, if any man is preaching to you a gospel contrary to what you received, he is to be accursed!”

2 Corinthians 11:4

“For if one comes and preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a different gospel which you have not accepted, this you tolerate very well!”

Tom Ascol

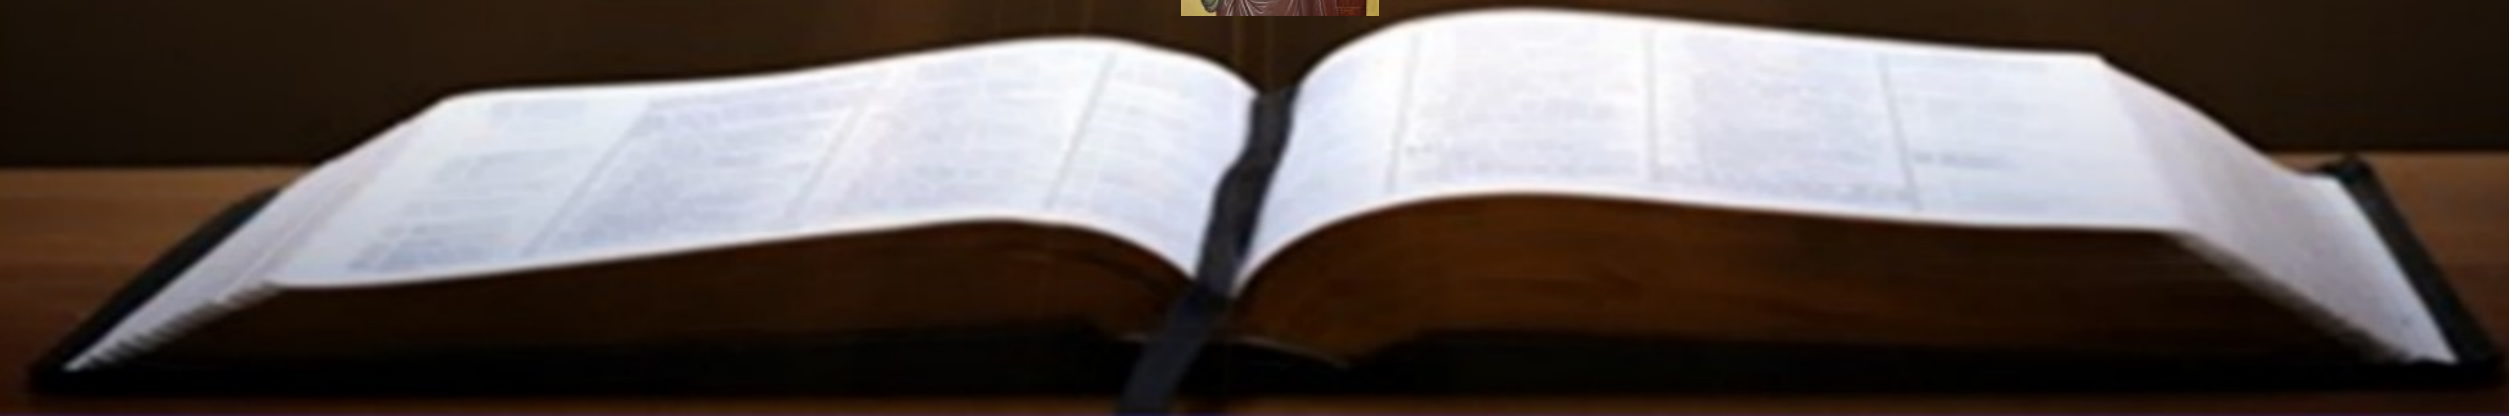

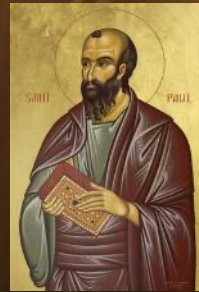

Sr. Pastor, Grace Baptist Church in Cape Coral, FL.

“Critical Race Theory and intersectionality” are “rooted in ideologies that are incompatible with Christianity.”

2 Corinthians 6:14-15

“¹⁴ Do not be mismatched with unbelievers; for what do righteousness and lawlessness share together, or what does light have in common with darkness? ¹⁵ Or what harmony does Christ have with Belial, or what does a believer share with an unbeliever?”

John 4:9, 27

⁹ So the Samaritan woman said to Him, “How is it that You, though You are a Jew, are asking me for a drink, though I am a Samaritan woman?” (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)...²⁷ And at this point His disciples came, and they were amazed that He had been speaking with a woman, yet no one said, “What are You seeking?” or, “Why are You speaking with her?”

Galatians 3:28

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 2:14

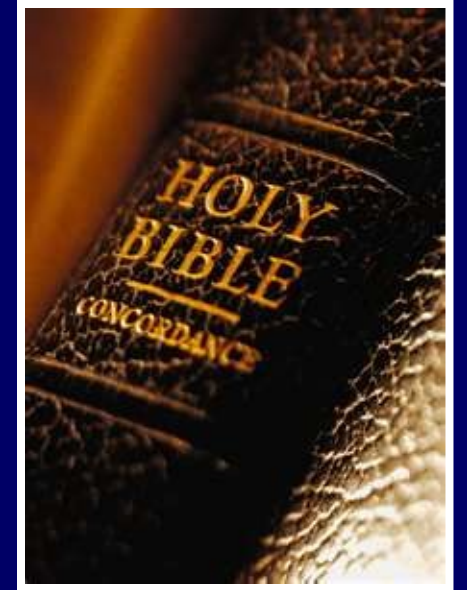

For He Himself is our peace, who made both groups into one and broke down the barrier of the dividing wall.

THE EMERGENCE OF LIBERATION THEOLOGY

RADICAL RELIGION AND SOCIAL MOVEMENT THEORY

CHRISTIAN SMITH

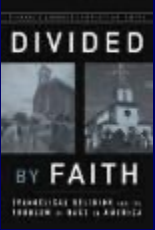

Original Sin and Racism

“Thus, if race problems – poor relationships – result from sin, then race problems must largely be individually based. Certainly we heard white evangelicals communicate these themes. According to one Congregational man, race problems exist because ‘it’s an issue of original sin.’... Absent from their accounts is the idea that poor relationships might be shaped by social structures, such as laws, the way institutions operate, or forms of segregation...Evangelicals are thus anti-structural because they believe that invoking the social structures shifts guilt away from its roots source – the accountable individual....

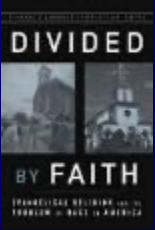

Original Sin and Racism

...However, evangelicals are selectively aware of social institutions – they see those that both impact them in their social location and tend to undermine accountable free will individualism. For instance, they are aware of affirmative action because such programs can impact them in their social location, and they tend to oppose such programs because they go against evangelical understanding of accountable freewill individualism.”

Premillennialism and Racism

“To understand this, we must account for the pre-millennial view that had come to dominate the American evangelical worldview and played a role in limiting evangelical social action on the race issues. According to this view, the present world is evil and will inevitably suffer moral decline until Christ comes again. Thus, to devote oneself to social reform is futile. The implications of this view were clearly expressed by Billy Graham. In response to King’s famous ‘I have a dream’ speech that his children might one day play together with white children, ...

Premillennialism and Racism

...Graham, who had been invited but did not attend the 1963 march on Washington, said: ‘only when Christ comes again will little white children of Alabama walk hand-in-hand with little black children.’ This was not meant to be harsh, but rather what he and most white evangelicals perceived to be realistic.”

John 16:2-3

“² They will ban you from the synagogue, yet an hour is coming for everyone who kills you to think that he is offering a service to God. ³ These things they will do because they will do because they have not known the Father nor Me.”
