The Book of Genesis, 445

“Now the deceiver is deceived, although the motivations differ from good to bad. This is divine retribution in four ways. First, Isaac’s blindness equals the darkness of Jacob’s wedding night, and neither could see well as a result. Second, this Jacob is deceived by being presented the older for the younger, the reversal of Isaac’s presentation of Jacob for Esau. Third, Isaac thought Jacob was Esau and Jacob thought Leah was Rachel. Fourth, Jacob pretended to be his older brother, while Leah pretended to be her younger sister.”

“In the naming of the first three sons, Leah named them with a basic hope that Jacob would learn to love her or at least treat her equally. That never happened. By the time she came to her fourth son, she focused on God and not on Jacob, realizing that although not loved by Jacob, she was loved by God. The two key institutions of Israel, priesthood (Levi) and royalty (Judah), came from an unplanned and unwanted marriage.”
