

Is America Under The Judgment of God?

Andrew Marshall Woods, Th.M., J.D., PhD.
Sr. Pastor, Sugar Land Bible Church

George Mason

“As nations cannot be rewarded or punished in the next world, so they must be in this. By an inevitable chain of causes and effects, providence punishes national sins by national calamities.”

@LeeStrobel

To continue in atheism, I'd need to believe nothing produces everything, non-life produces life, randomness produces fine-tuning, chaos produces information, unconsciousness produces consciousness, and non-reason produces reason. I just didn't have that much faith.

General vs. Special Revelation

	General	Special
Examples	Nature, conscience (Rom 1–2)	Incarnation, Scripture, miracles
Availability	All	Some
Accomplishment	Accountability (Rom 1)	Salvation (Acts 4:12; 2 Tim 3:15)
Form	Non-written or non-verbal	Written
Quality	Natural	Supernatural, miraculous

Declaration of Independence

“the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God,”

“we hold these truths to be self evident, that all men are created equal,”

“they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights,”

“appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions,”

“with firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence.”

John Adams

John Adams - America's second President
"Rights [are] antecedent to all earthly government; Rights... cannot be repealed or restrained by human laws; Rights [are] derived from the great Legislature of the universe."

Former Attorney General Janet Reno

“You are part of a government that has given its people more freedom... than any other government in the history of the world.”

Speech by Attorney General Janet Reno, Newark, New Jersey, May 5, 1995.
Quoted in James Bovard, “Waco Must Get a Hearing,” Wall Street Journal, May 15, 1995.

Sir William Blackstone

“Thus, when the Supreme Being formed the universe, and created matter out of nothing, he imposed certain principles upon that matter, from which it can never depart, and without which it would cease to be...If we farther advance, from mere inactive matter to vegetable and animal life, we shall find them still governed by laws, more numerous indeed, but equally fixed and invariable...Man, considered as a creature, must necessarily be subject to the laws of his creator, for he is entirely a dependent being.... no human laws should be suffered to contradict the laws of nature and the law of revelation.”

Christopher Columbus

“Our Lord opened to my understanding (I could sense his hand upon me) so it became clear to me that the voyage was feasible...All those who heard of my enterprise rejected it with laughter, scoffing at me...Who doubts this illumination was from the Holy Spirit? I attest that He, with marvelous rays of light, consoled me with the holy and sacred Scriptures...“they inflame me with a sense of great urgency...No one should be afraid to take on any enterprise in the name of the savior if it is right and if the purpose is purely for His holy service...And I say that the sign that convinces me that our Lord is hastening the end of the world is the preaching of the Gospel in so many distant lands.””

Christopher Columbus

...“they inflame me with a sense of great urgency...No one should be afraid to take on any enterprise in the name of the savior if it is right and if the purpose is purely for His holy service...And I say that the sign that convinces me that our Lord is hastening the end of the world is the preaching of the Gospel in so many distant lands.”

Columbus, Book of Prophecies, trans. Kay Brigham, 178-79, 182-83.

Mayflower Compact (1620)

Mayflower, in 1620, recites: “Having undertaken for the glory of God and advancement of the Christian faith and the honor of our king and country a voyage to plant the first colony in the northern parts of Virginia.”

Old Satan Deluder Law: 1642 Massachusetts

“It being one chief project of that old deluder, Satan, to keep men from the knowledge of the Scriptures, as in former time... It is therefore ordered...that after the Lord hath increased the settlement... they shall...appoint one within their town, to teach all such children to read...they shall set up a grammar school to instruct youths...”

New England Primer

A: “In Adam’s fall we sinned all.”

C: Christ crucify’d for sinners dy’d.”

D: “The deluge drown’d the earth around.”

J: Job feels the rod, yet blesses God

N: “Noah did view the old world & new.”

Z: “Zaccheus he did climb the tree our Lord to see.”

Harvard University

“Let every student be plainly instructed and earnestly pressed to consider well the main end of his life and studies is to know God and Jesus Christ which is eternal life (John 17:3) and therefore to lay Christ in the bottom as the only foundation of all sound knowledge and learning. And seeing the Lord only giveth wisdom, let everyone seriously set himself by prayer in secret to seek it of Him (Prov. 2, 3). Everyone shall exercise himself in reading the Scriptures twice a day that he shall be ready to give such an account of his proficiency therein.”

Benjamin Franklin

“Hence bad examples to youth are more rare in America... Atheism is unknown there, Infidelity rare and secret; so that great persons may live to a great age in that country without having their piety shocked by meeting with either Atheist or Infidel.”

John Jay

“Providence has given to our people the choice of their rulers, and it is the duty, as well as the privilege and interest of our Christian nation to select and prefer Christians for their rulers.” [emphasis added]

Alexis de Tocqueville

“There is no country in the whole world in which the Christian religion retains a greater influence over the souls of men than in America and there can be no greater proof of its utility, and of its conformity to human nature, than that its influence is most powerfully felt over the most enlightened and free nation on earth.”

Alexis de Tocqueville, Democracy in America and Two Essays, trans. Gerald E. Bevan (1830; reprint, NY: Penguin, 2003), 340.

America is a “Christian Nation”

“This is historically true. From the discovery of this continent to the present hour, there is a single voice making this affirmation...These are not the sayings, declarations of private persons: they are organic utterances; they speak the voice of the entire people...These and many other matters which might be noticed, add a volume of unofficial declarations to the mass of organic utterances that this is a Christian nation.”

Thomas Jefferson

"I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just, and that his justice will not sleep forever."

Thomas Jefferson, Notes on the State of Virginia (1794), 270–272,
"Query XVIII The Particular Customs and Manners that may Happen to be Received in that State?"

Evolution

Definition – A gradual process in which something changes into a different and usually more complex or better form. Change in the genetic composition of a population during successive generations, as a result of natural selection acting on the genetic variation among individuals, and resulting in the development of new species. – Wikipedia

Missing Links

“Links are missing just where we most fervently desire them and its all too probable that many ‘links’ will continue to be missing.”

Alfred S. Romer, Genetics, Evolution, and Paleontology, p. 114

“Gradualism is a concept I believe in...Yet Gould and the American museum people are hard to contradict when they say that there are no transitional fossils. You say that I should show a photo of the fossil from which each type of organism was derived. I will lay it on the line-there is not one such fossil from which one could make an airtight argument...It is easy enough to make up stories of how one form gave rise to another, and to find reasons why the stages should be favoured by natural selection. But such stories are not part of science, for there is no way of putting them to the test.”

Why Evolution's Popularity?

“The evolutionary origin of man relieves man of responsibility to a personal Creator outside of himself.”

John Quincy Adams

“The birth-day of the nation is indissolubly linked with the birth-day of the Saviour [and] forms a leading event in the progress of the gospel dispensation...the Declaration of Independence first organized the social compact on the foundation of the Redeemer’s mission upon the earth [and] laid the corner stone of human government upon the first precepts of Christianity.”

John Quincy Adams, An Oration Delivered before the Inhabitants of the Town of Newburyport at Their Request on the Sixty-First Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence (Newburyport: Whipple, 1837), 5-6.

Gaia Hypothesis

“According to the Gaia Hypothesis, we are parts of a greater whole. If we endanger her, she will dispense with us in the interest of a higher value—that is, life itself.”

Vaclav Havel, “What the World Needs Now,” New Age Journal (September/October 1994): 162; quoted in William Grigg, Freedom on the Altar (Appleton, WI: American Opinion, 1995), 161.

Gaia Hypothesis

“Gaia is Mother Earth. Gaia is immortal. She is the eternal source of life. She does not need to reproduce herself as she is immortal. She is certainly the mother of us all, including Jesus...Gaia is not a tolerant mother. She is rigid and inflexible, ruthless in the destruction of whoever transgresses. Her unconscious objective is that of maintaining a world adapted to life. If we men hinder this objective we will be eliminated without pity.”

Gaia Hypothesis

"What happened in Haiti could happen to anywhere in the Caribbean because all these island nations are in peril because of global warming," Glover said. "When we see what we did at the climate summit in Copenhagen, this is the response, this is what happens, you know what I'm sayin'?"

Genesis 6:1-4

“¹ Now it came about, when men began to multiply on the face of the land, and daughters were born to them, ² that the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose. ³ Then the Lord said, ‘My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, because he also is flesh; nevertheless his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.’ ⁴ The Nephilim were on the earth in those days,…”

John Calvin

Calvin's Institutes 4.20.25 and Calvin's Commentary on Romans (13:3-4).

“Indeed, he says that those who rule for the public benefit are true patterns and evidences of this beneficence of his; that they who rule unjustly and incompetently have been raised up by him to punish the wickedness of the people...Yet, we need not labor to prove that a wicked king is the Lord's wrath upon the earth [Job 34:30, Vg.; Hos. 13:11; Isa. 3:4; 10:5; Deut. 28:29], for I believe no man will contradict me; and thus nothing more would be said of a king than of a robber who seizes your possessions, of an adulterer who pollutes your marriage bed, or of a murderer who seeks to kill you...For since a wicked prince is the Lord's scourge to punish the sins of the people, let us remember, that it happens through our fault that this excellent blessing of God is turned into a curse.” [italics added].
