d) Humbled (2e)

Dr. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum

The Book of Genesis, 491

“He took her. Second: [He] lay with her. The Hebrew text does not use the indirect object for her, which shows that Dinah was violated by force and not by consent. The indirect form is also used in 39:7, where Potiphar’s wife wanted intercourse with Joseph by consent.”

Cities of Refuge

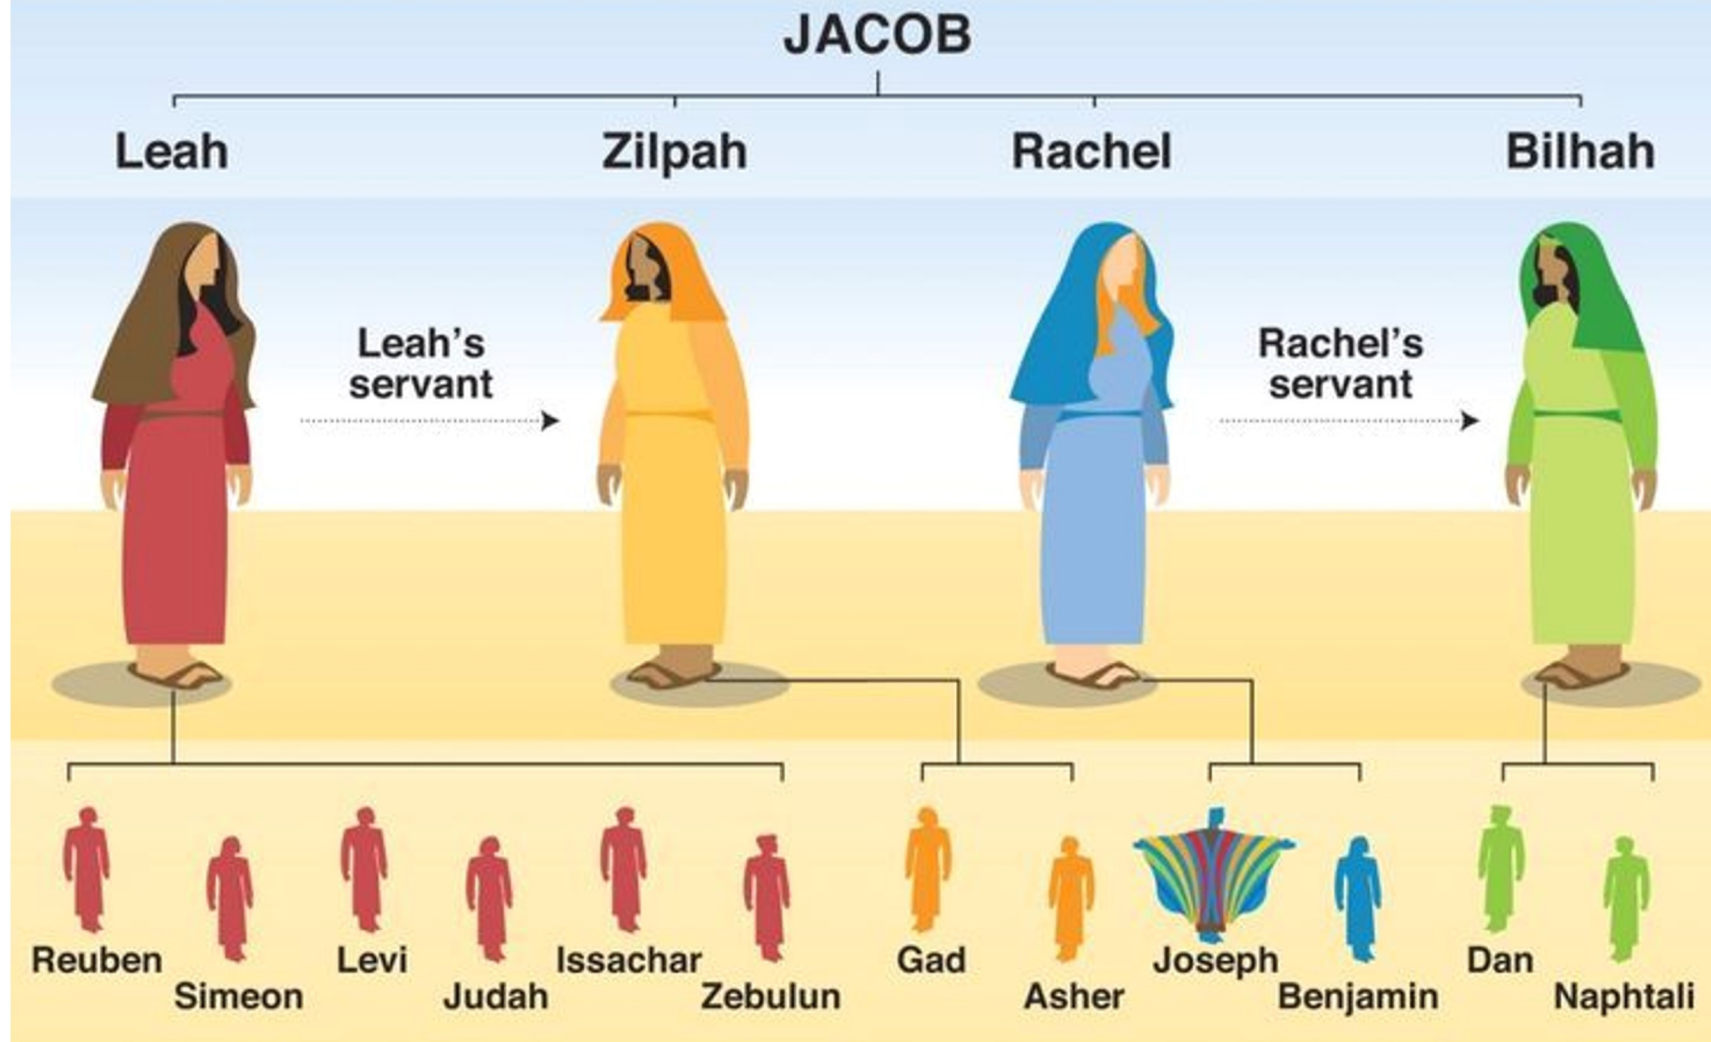

Dr. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum

The Book of Genesis, 492

“He had done folly in Israel. First, the word for folly refers to a godless act that polluted the family, and eventually results in the breakup of existing relationships between tribes and between family members and between God and man. The word used is nevalah, which appears thirteen times in the Hebrew text, and eight of those times it is used of sexual crimes (Gen. 34:7; Deut. 22:21; Judg. 19:23, 19:24, 20:6, 20:10; II Sam. 13:12; Jer. 29:23). The means of this crime was: in lying with Jacob’s daughter.”

“The third observation is to note a contrast between chapters 34 and 35 of Genesis. In chapter 34 there is absolutely no mention of God, no reference to God whatsoever. But in chapter 35, the word God will be mentioned eleven times by itself, and God’s Name will be found eleven more times in connection with specific names.”

Ezekiel 38:8, 11

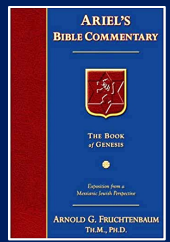

“⁸ After many days you will be summoned; in the latter years you will come into the land that is restored from the sword, whose inhabitants have been gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel which had been a continual waste; but its people were brought out from the nations, and they are living securely [batach], all of them...¹¹ and you will say, ‘I will go up against the land of unwalled villages. I will go against those who are at rest [shacat], that live securely [batach], all of them living without walls and having no bars or gates.”

Dr. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum

The Book of Genesis, 497

“Third, Dinah’s brothers carried out the slaughter: they took each man his sword, and came upon the city unawares. The Hebrew root for came upon is batach from which the word ‘security’ comes. It means they came upon the city boldly, without fail, with full ‘security,’ knowing that the male population had been incapacitated. So although there were just two of them, they were fully secure in what they were about to do, and what they did was: [They] slew all the males.”

Dr. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum

The Book of Genesis, 497

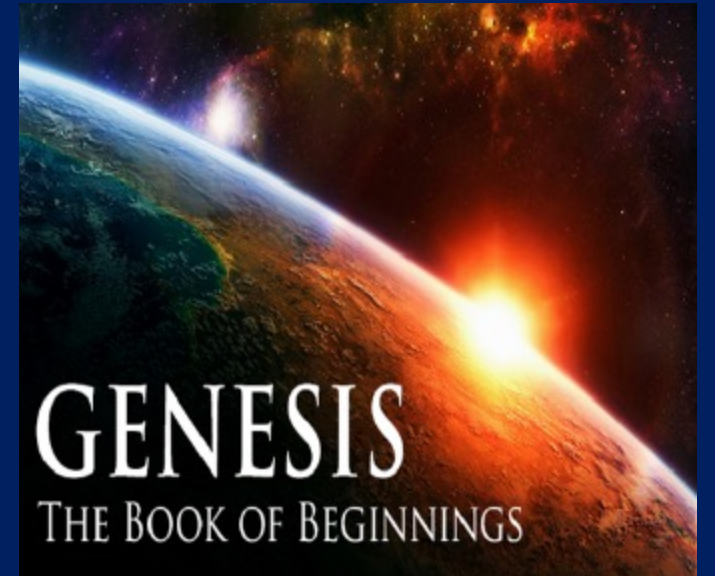

“The sons of Jacob came upon the slain. After all were dead, after Dinah was rescued, came the act of the sons of Jacob: they plundered the city. The reasons was: because they had defiled their sister. The pronoun is plural, they defiled. The whole town was held responsible for Dinah’s rape, since the whole town failed to act responsibly. 1 Corinthians 3:10-15

¹⁰ According to the grace of God which was given to me, like a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another is building on it. But each man must be careful how he builds on it. ¹¹ For no man can lay a foundation other than the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹² Now if any man builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, ¹³ each man's work will become evident; for the day will show it because it is to be revealed with fire, and the fire itself will test the quality of . . .

1 Corinthians 3:10-15

... each man's work. ¹⁴ If any man's work which he has built on it remains, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵ If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.
