Charles Ryrie. – Threat View

Ryrie Study Bible, Page 1521

“Others understand the passage to be a warning to genuine believers to urge them on in Christian growth and maturity. To ‘fall away’ is impossible (since, according to this view, true believers are eternally secure), but the phrase is placed in the sentence to strengthen the warning. It is similar to saying something like this to a class of students: ‘It is impossible for a student, once enrolled in this course, if he turns the clock back [which cannot be done], to start the course over. Therefore, let all students go on to deeper knowledge.’ In this view the phrases in verses 4-5 are understood to refer to the conversion experience.”

Perseverance of the Saints = Perseverance in Good Works to the End of One's Life to Prove that He is One of the Elect

“P” stands for “Perseverance of the Saints.” This is what Calvinists say gives them the assurance of eternal security, but in actuality “the emphasis is upon the believer’s faithfulness in persevering—not upon God’s keeping power ... uncertainty as to one’s ultimate salvation is, in fact, built into the very fabric of Calvinism itself.”

- The superiority of the full revelation of Christ in comparison to OT Judaism is shown through Christ's superiority to every major vestige of Judaism, and the author wrote Hebrews so that his audience would not lapse back into Judaism.
